The Beginning

Passage 1 (October 4, 2025)

Hi. My name is Ted. I don't do the best in school. Like this:

June is on the toilet. He is attempting to measure the length of his poop. If he has one poop about 5 inches long, and he wants to see how many micrometers long his poo is, what does he need to do?

Hint: 1 inch = 25400 micrometers

EAT IT

OCTOBER 14, 2025

THE METEOR SHOWER WILL END HUMANITY

FOREVER

Yeah, not the best. I'm kind of scared by that date though. So, I'm gonna tell you what situation I'm currently in tomorrow, when something exciting happens.

Passage After 1 (October 5, 2025)

I am currently writing this while I just walked off a cliff, attempting to fly with a broom, leading to a 1000 ft drop. Yeah, this is dangerous. So, I grabbed my broom and attempted to fly. I failed. So, I'm falling. Somebody help me, please.

Passage 4001 (October 6, 2025)

as in a Passage number nobody has reached yet

I fell and survived. I think I should be in one of those "I SURVIVED" books. Like those where somebody survives a tragic event, and they're probably traumatized from it. Like "I SURVIVED a 1000 Foot Drop Off a Cliff!". Well, I am alive. Just with a broken leg. I wish I could fly.

Passage Donut (October 7, 2025)

I want a donut. I will get a donut. I walk to the store. I grabbed a donut. I walk out with a donut. I go home with donuts. I ate a donut. Mmmm. Yummy. Did I mention I stole the donut?

Passage Cookie (October 8, 2025)

I do not see why this Passage is called Passage cookie, because I ~~never~~ eat a cookie once in this book. I grab a cookie. I fight against reality and throw the cookie at the ground. I win. Yay. I go to the convenience store. I steal all the soda. I won again. Woohoo.

Passage 6 (October 9, 2025)

I couldn't resist it. I ate the cookie off the ground. It was pulling me. I loved it. Mmmm. I lost. Boohoo. I go to school, the bell rings and I go to class. I solved this.

If Jack is holding a shape, and you don't know what the shape is, what shape is it?

Hints:

I have 3 sides

I am right angled

I am isosceles.

Which shape is Jack's shape?

HOW DO I KNOW? IT SAYS "AND YOU DON'T KNOW", SO I DO NOT KNOW.

YOU IDIOT, IT'S A TRIANGLE

F-- FOR FAIL, BUT EVEN WORSE.

I got an F-- for that. I don't know why, because I was right. This teacher is very poopid. After school I go to the nearby Sonic. I got a slushie. I drink the [REDACTED] out of it. Did I mention that I got a grape slush with nerds? Well, I did. They are VERY good. Now I go home and I eat dinner. Then it is the sleepy time. I sleep. I dream. I woke up.

Passage SHORT (October 10, 2025)

I just found out that if I switch my first and last name, it's Ifar Ted. I am truly disappointed in my mom. She named me.

Passage 8 (October 11, 2025)

I told my mom about the naming issue, and she said this:

"I named you after what you did inside of the womb."

I can't believe it. I farted in the womb?! That is WEIRD! Wonder what it feels like to have a baby fart inside of you... I googled it and babies CANNOT fart inside of the womb because they need air to fart. I must have farted as soon as I got my head out, but my [REDACTED] was still inside. That is SO weird. I cannot believe that. Well, Passage over.

Passage Me (October 12, 2025)

I think I'm going to put some stuff about me.

- My name is Ted Ifar
- My middle name is Gross
- I love green
- I am a male
- I go to the Wetson's Elementary School
- I am very funny
- I have less than one and a whole number, non-negative of friends
- My favorite foods are: beans, pancakes, and some other stuff
- Mmmmm, donut
- I live in Indiana

That's it, chapstick OVER!!!!

Passage Social Media (and how bad it is) (October 13, 2025)

I just found out about youtube and it's filled with brain rotting content. I'd rather stay away from it. I can't even get through 1 video, or half, or a quarter, or an eighth. All of it is just "Skibidi Toilet Ohio Rizz Sticking Out your Gyatt for the Rizzler Toilet Gyatt Ohioan Rizz Sigma Pomni Digital Circus". I hate social media so much. Tik-tok is better, but worse. It's the same but brain rot is rare to find. Most of it is Ronaldo Messi edits or whatever the [REDACTED] that is. Another thing is, I HATE soccer and basketball.

DON'T HAVE TIME (October 14, 2025)

THE END IS NEAR. THERE IS A METEOR COMING FOR EARTH!! WE ARE ALL GOING TO DIE!!
AHHHHHHH! THERE ARE SEVERAL METEORS
HEADING TOWARDS INDIANA (WHERE I [REDACTED]ING

LIVE) AND I AM SCARED!! GOODBYE CRUEL

ACT 2

Villain Arc

Prologue

Hello. I'm Ted, the guy who was in a meteor shower. I was investigating it and I realized - the teacher caused it! I found out that there's something on the suspicious teacher's laptop, called "NukeEm'". It's an app that schedules meteors and nuclear bombs! She scheduled a meteor for October 14, 2025. I lived through it.

Discovered a new element or two in those meteors. One of which was radioactive. I was one of the only Hoosiers that survived. My teacher just got [REDACTED]ed, and I got a new one. I now feel a lot smarter. I can solve 10×20 . It's 200. I would have said 20 back then. I also learned division, and now have a brother. I will refer to him as "Brother of mine". He is very annoying. You will NEVER find his name. Not in a million years.

Passage 1

Beach Disaster

Today I'm at the H beach, where I threw wet sand at the brother of mine. He is now covered in sand. This is very fun. He screams so loud, even my mom (she's very insensitive to sound) plugs her ears. I get a coke from the cooler and watch. Then I see like, 10 eagles swoop down and pick him up. Now he's screaming in the air, and gets dropped like 10 miles away. That's funny. I take one last sip of my coke and I walk away with mom. She's crying and I'm dying laughing. He died.

Passage 2

Time Out for You

Ever since he died, my mom has been crying. I've been laughing. We found his remains but he's mostly like this:

____o

Yeah, he went splat. My mom is scolding me greatly for laughing, and I am now in the time-out corner.

Furiously, I get up out of my chair and punch my mom in the face about 15 (I counted) times. She bleeds on my brand new white Crocs, so I do it again. I walk into d- I mean brother of mine's room, and destroy all his favorite toys. I wish I could punch him, but he's dead. I then pour water on his iPad because I never got one, and then I remember: NukeEm' is the perfect thing for this situation.

Passage 3

Ifar Disaster

I run to the school, and break in. I get on the old teacher's computer, and I start up NukeEm.exe. I click "Nuclear Bomb" and schedule it for 2:30 minutes away from now. I direct it to my house, specifically where his room is so his room gets damaged most, and then I jump out and get into a taxi. They take me to another city, which has taxis that go further in less time and has no speed limits. I jump into a taxi and ask: "Take me the furthest you can from Indiana in less than 2 minutes and 30 seconds." They do exactly that. Let's fast forward 2 minutes and 20 seconds. I arrive, the bomb hits, and my brother's room? Turned to ash in just a few seconds. The bomb is bigger than I thought. People are calling it the "Ifar Brothers Disaster", a name I hate. I don't think I would call me and d-brother of mine "brothers". Mostly because he's dead and I'm alive.

Passage 4

Finding Home

I'm trying to find a home right now. Living in Ohio is really hard. Went up to the local orphanage, "accidentally" burnt it down. Did I mention I moved NukeEm onto a USB drive? Also, NukeEm has a lot more options. There's all these:

- Meteor
- Nuke
- Fire
- Plane crash
- Shooting
- Raid
- Destruction
- Brainwash

- Infect all devices in building with ransomware, ransom: [XX]
- Sniper
- DDOS
- ALL AT ONCE

The all at once option is CHAOTIC. I tested it on a spam headquarters (don't worry they deserved it) and it really did do it all at once! Anyways, I found somewhere to live while writing this. I am now an orphan. My dad is on a business trip but when he comes back he's gonna be DEVASTATED. Don't worry, he deserved it for all those whoopings he gave me.

Passage 5

Dad's Perspective

Hi. I'm Ted's dad, Bob. I just arrived at the house. I opened the door and WHAT. Kayla (Ted's mom) is dead, Dave and his room are gone, and.. Wait, I'm dreaming. I just woke up and apparently my house is GONE. Where's Ted? Oh no, oh no! Did he run away? Why would he do such a thing? Luckily I can use the location tracker I have. Hmm. He's in... Ohio? What? That can't be right. I'm going to him. He's in some orphanage.

Passage 6

Back 2 Ted

I'm tracking my dad down, and he's literally speeding towards Ohio. Oh no. No no no! He found me! I took the tracker off and threw it on the floor of the orphanage. I again, "accidentally" burnt down the orphanage. I walked outside and got a taxi. I went even further from Ohio, and got to Kentucky. I then went to the local computer store and broke in. I grabbed a computer and logged in with my Google account. The manager said "Hey!" "You can't-" And then I punched him double the amount of times I did to my mom. Then he died. On the computer, I put in the NukeEm USB. I chose Nuke and aimed for Ohio. Ohio is gone. I won for the 4th time in 2 different diaries. But now, they found me. Police cars show up. Little do they know..

Passage 7

The Cop Fight

I see a new option appear on NukeEm. It's called "Summon". It drops a box near you containing a powerful gun and ammo. I click. I grabbed it. I shoot the cops. I won for the 5th time in 2 diaries. But still, there's one left. I walked up to him. He is greatly injured but alive. I hit him double the amount of times the manager got. I won. Yes! Now I must avoid more interactions with the police.

Passage 8

Finding Home 2

I ran from the store, computer in my hands. I found an adoption center. I walk in. Fast forward some time, I'm adopted. My new parents are named Johnson (dad), and... Nevermind. I am momless. Anyway, I am now Ted Johnson. My goal is to end the US and all of its states. In fact, I will do that tomorrow after a good night's sleep. Nighty nighty. Zzz.

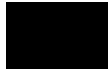

Passage 9

Ending The United States - Feb 17

I woke up and jumped out of bed. I got on my computer and checked the "TURBOCHARGE" option on NukeEm. I aimed for the center of the US. I clicked "Nuke" and also "Meteor" at the same time. I won for the 6th and final time. I scheduled it for 1 minute from now. All I can do now is sit and wait. Unless...

Passage 10

Flight to the Moon

I sped over to the SpaceStuf HQ, using my usual taxi technique. Once I got there, they were about to launch. I broke in, punched everybody 120 times, jumped in a rocket and got in my suit. I got the main control without asking, and I flew over to the moon. I landed successfully, and now.. all I can do is watch only 4% of the world population fall. After the super-nuke hit, I grabbed a coke from the food and drink supply. Holy  is that Azby?! Oh wait, I never told you about her. She's my girlfriend.

Passage 11

Fly Back

I take one last sip of the coke and walk to the rocket. I get control back and fly back to earth, but not the US. I fly to Australia. I didn't land successfully though. I crash and get flung out of the rocket. I hit the grou-

ACT 3

Imprisonment

Passage 1

Prologue

Hi, I'm Ted. The guy who ended the US and survived some meteors. This is a tribute to keep writing my diaries. I just found out I'm immortal. I am the chosen one. I'm going to do some more stuff.

Passage 2

The Chosen One

I am currently on top of the world's tallest building. I jump off, attempting to test myself. I hit the ground and, some miracle lets me survive. I am TRULY the chosen one. Some guy shoots me saying "It's an alien! It's an alien!" but before the bullet hits, I grab the bullet and throw it back in slow-mo. He dies, I don't cry. Haha, that rhymes! Then, I take a walk around the city. I haven't specified where I am yet, so I'm in Indiana. Yep! They remade the US in some time. Now's the perfect time to RUIN it. Just while it's good.

Passage 3

Perfect Time To Ruin It!

I get on NukeEm, check "TURBOCHARGE" and click the "Nuke" button! I flee from the US in a car I can drive (physically not legally) and I get to the other side of the continent. It's a total wasteland over here, but it's worth not being killed in a nuke. As I watch the bomb fall down, I sip my coke (again) and see bright lights cover the sky (in the shape of a mushroom) and one thing stands out to me.. A skeleton with a cape attached to it is flung by the explosion, in my direction with JUST enough force to hit me. I move my chair like 100 ft away so there's no way it can hit m-

Passage 4

Hospital Days

I woke up in the hospital, with a broken cranium and wrist. The doctors tell me I was in a coma for multiple years. Then they push some buttons.. Then the walls fall down and they say "Just kidding! See you in prison!" "Oh I'm not so sure about that, do you think any seemingly normal person can punch a brick out of a wall?", I said. I get up and punch those wrinkly, crusty fake doctors 240 times each, waiting 1 second after each hit, taking 4 minutes to complete each, and there were 4 doctors meaning that took me 16 minutes (a waste of time). I then walk into my new cell.

Passage 5

Prison Escape

Already this is boring. I must serve a death sentence. "Nuh uh," I say, and then punch the bricks out of the wall. They fly with so much velocity that they break the electric fence AND normal fence, and then I walk through the hole I made, but there's a drop like this:

```

_<Me           |
|               |
|               |
|       Hole>   |
|               |
|               |

```

Pretty big. But I notice the conveniently dug hole in the ground. Guards are already onto me so I jump into the hole. It's curved and brings me to the outside.

Somebody must have already escaped with a shovel.

They left it for the others though. I also covered the hole back up with dirt when I got out so they couldn't EVER find me.

Passage 6

Makin' My Way Downtown

As I walk down the road, nobody suspects a thing. I think: "What if I go back to Indiana? Maybe I can see my house.." I then teleport to Indiana (wait what) and I find my house. I know where we lived. It was [REDACTED].

Passage 7

Home, Finally.

not for long

Well, I found 4 things that all confuse me.

1. My house is back.
2. My mom is back.

3. My dad is back.

4. My brother is back.

Very weird. I walk in my house and say "I'm back."

They are surprised. They are wondering how I came back. They say: "I saw you on the news! Did you [REDACTED] hijack a rocket?!" "Yes," I say. "Now stop talking about it before I hijack you." She is scared. Just what I wanted. I see my brother. What should I do? Punch him in the face 4000 times, at a fast pace, of course!

All I hear during my punching session is "AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!" but I don't care. My mom cursed me out for a bit, but I threw his corpse at her, and that seemed to silence her. Then all that's left is my dad. I'm doing something special to this one. I go all stickman fight on him and pull out my special power. Laser eyes. I blast the [REDACTED] out of him and then it (his life) ends in a BANG.

ACT 4

Sunburn

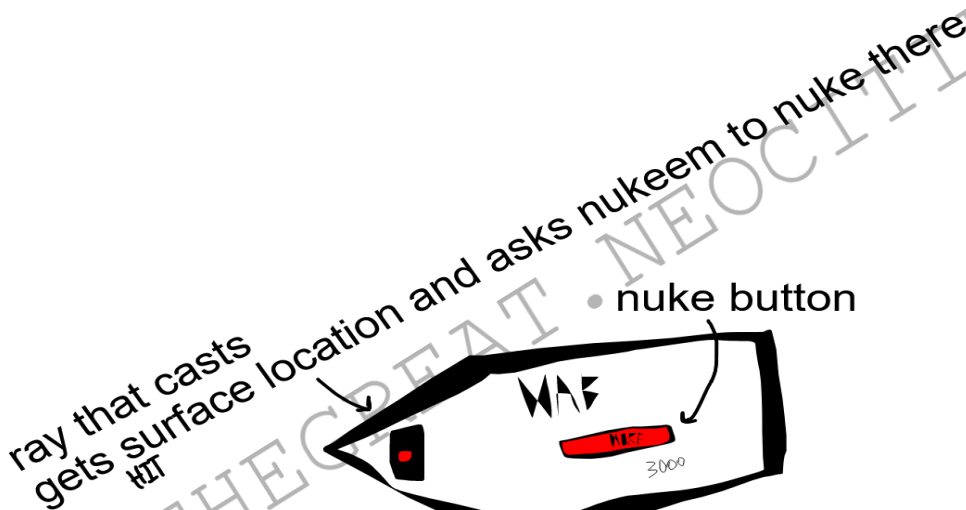

Prologue

Hi. I'm Ted. I escaped prison, ended the U.S., nuked a few places and more. And, on top of all that, I'm 9 years old. This is my 4th diary I've made so far. I hope the cops don't find these.

Passage 1

NukeABuilding3000

Today, I wanted to invent something. So I went to my lab, and designed this!

Then I made it, and it came out pretty good. I also added a "TURBO" switch, but that's on the other side. I call it the Nuke A Building 3000. It nukes stuff. I tested it a bunch and it works pretty good.

Passage 2

Pure Chaos

Now that I have a weapon that could cause a lot of chaos, I am going to use it. So I look around and see a lemonade stand with an oversized talking duck ordering grapes, and I say "Buh bye, little quacker!". Then I fire my Nuke A Building 3000. People are running for their lives and then I feel a stabbing sensation.

Passage 3

Stabbing Sensation

I looked down and was surprised to see a sword through my chest. However, I don't fall, and I look behind me. I am stunned to see MegaJinx behind me. If you don't know him, he's a superhero that has no powers, except a extremely strong and sharp sword. I used to PRAISE him when I was little. Now? I absolutely despise him. As I look towards him, he says: "Looks like it's over for you, teddy." I was outraged by this. Nobody calls me teddy, or they get sand in their eyes at the H beach. I responded, "Not so sure about that, junky." I then proceeded to punch him to the ground so he would let go of the sword and then I grabbed it. I pinned him to the ground, and finally.. I stabbed him in the chest with his own sword. I won THAT lame battle.

Passage 4

Hide the Evidence

I decided I would hide his body, and I decided I would use my special tool. I used the NukeABuilding3000 on the building he was on and he was turned to ash. This is a short Passage.

Passage 5

Play on a Crayon

Today I saw a FLYING CRAYON in the sky. So, I did the responsible thing and flew on top of it. I drew a little cloud and hopped on it. And bonus: I drew 100 heavy hammers so I could throw them down at people I don't like. I hit a couple people and I saw my house. How the [REDACTED] is my house still there?!?! I lowered the cloud and jumped in, and saw my mom, dad, brother and everything back in place. Then I decided to do the right thing AGAIN. I blasted the [REDACTED] out of all of them with my laser eyes. But not Dave. Oh wait. Pretend you didn't hear his name. But not my brother.. I'm saving the best for last. Once I was finished with them I asked my brother: "Wanna go to the H beach?" He said yes. Right into my trap. We went there and I said "Ok, wanna play a game?" "Yeah, sure." He says.

He's so stupid. Then, I don't tell him the game, and using my powers, I pick up most of the sand in the area and say "Here we go.." and I throw it at him at full force. Then, I pick him up with telekinesis and throw him through the ground, full force speeding towards the earth's core. "Ok, you lose!" I say. But I won.

Notes: The crayon was a giant balloon with a thick string attached to the tip. The spawning of items was purely due to Ted's powers.

Passage 6

Sunburn

After our "game" (sacrifice), I walk around on the H beach. I feel some sunburns, but I'm sure it will wear off sometime. Then, I fell to the ground. Apparently, MY ONLY WEAKNESS IS THE SUN. I then, out of pure rage, scream at the top of my lungs, and then I turn into ash. I am writing this Passage as I am a ghost with a clipboard and pencil. I'm trying to put my body back together, so I'll make another diary when I'm alive again.

ACT 5

The game is won

Prologue

I'm back. I put myself back together. I am alive again.

Passage 1

Robbit

Today I updated NukeEm and NOW, there's a second app called Robbit. It's for robbing banks and disrupts calls with police, and even hacks into the vault. Today I'm testing it out. I walk near the bank and click "Hack Vault". Then, using my powers I teleport to the vault entrance and I grab the money, put it in my bag, and teleport out. I disrupt police calls, and I'm done.

Passage 2

Robert

I wanted to know WHO made NukeEm, so I tracked them down. They live in Indiana, conveniently. I walked over to the NukeEm underground HQ. I walk inside and see a whole factory of nukes, meteors and more. I go to the "CEO OFFICE" and open the door. We chat a bit, I tell him about the NAB 3000, he says he could market it, and his name? Robert. He's Robert Will!?! He was the town's greatest criminal, until he disappeared. He dug a hole in the ground to escape prison.. I ask him: "Were you the one who dug that hole I used to escape prison?" He said "Absolutely. I've been watching you. You're doing good, buddy." I told him about how I beat MegaJinx. He was very shocked. "I was almost caught by him a few times myself, but never beat him. Good job. Go on and keep doing what you do." I walked out of the NukeEm HQ, and I sat at a bus stop.

Passage 3

Bus Insanity

On that bus, I grabbed my SSHD (Super Secret Hacking Device) and stopped the bus at a green light with it. Then like, 5 cars came crashing into the back, and I controlled them, to hit 5 times. When the bus got going again, I controlled a car on the other side to keep going the same way but on our side of the road, speeding towards us, making the bus and the car crash. The only people left on the bus were me, the driver and some grandma sleeping. Sleeping, not dead yet. I took the grandma out first by grabbing her cane and whacking her with it 10 times, while I heard: "I AM YEEE GRAMMMAAA!!" and then I got the bus driver by pushing him out of the bus onto the other lane to get run over. I then got out of the bus onto the sidewalk and walked home. I got home and needed a good night's sleep, so I went to sleep.

Passage 4

Beach Mood

Today, I was at the # beach with my family. It's named that because the first picture taken and posted online there had the most hashtags ever, counting up to 2000 different tags. I saw my brother, Matthew. I hate brothers so I used telekinesis to throw him speeding toward the core of the earth with Dave. Doing this got me into a type of mood where I would brutally  everybody I see, meaning in the next 2 seconds

I whacked my mother with sharp glass from her glasses and stabbed my dad with some. Then I destroyed the lifeguard station with a cane I used before.

Passage 5

Another One Chokes On Dust

Today I decided to sprinkle deadly amounts of dust on the streets, so I did that. Now everybody's choking. I decided I would infect the dust with deadly viruses, so I did. Now all the outdoor people are dead, and there are only lazy, indoor people. This town will fall, because I think the town mayor was outside.

Passage 6

Guns N' Noses

Today I wanted to [REDACTED] somebody so I did. I shot every window, aimed at the person's nose, so I can call this Guns N' Noses for another funny Passage title. One guy sniffed a bullet. I don't know how I don't have multiple death sentences yet.

Passage 7

School

I decided I needed school, so I did some boring stuff I won't include and I am now in school. There's a talent show tomorrow. Oh, this is gonna be good. I'll update you on the day of the talent show.

Passage 8

"Talent" Show

At the talent show, there was one girl who was HORRIBLE at singing, one boy who got an anvil dropped on their head from the ceiling and so much more. Then it was my turn. I said "This is my talent in... chaos." Then I pulled out my NAB 3000 and clicked everywhere in the building, walked out, and then said "Haha, and by the way - That's my anvil!" and then BOOM!

Passage 9

I win.

I went to the graveyard, and looked for my family's gravestones. I found them and picked them all out of the ground, and threw them into space. Now, nobody

[illegible]

ACT 6

Ra The Sun God

Passage 1

New Man

The sun hurts me. It feels horrible, but I'm enduring the pain of training. There's been a new man entering town. His name is Rah. He's projected into reality from the sky. Everyone likes him, and I can't seem to kill him. He seems like me, but the exact opposite in every way except gender. Like an exact copy-and-paste, but tuned to be bright yellow.

Passage 2

Assasination Attempt

I'm at the theater. Rah is watching a movie with his friends. With my AWP, I aim for his head and BAM! It went.. straight through him. Like he's MADE of light. Oh wait, he IS. He's just an astral projection of the sun! It seems the only thing that I can do to get rid of him is destroy the sun. But I have to get closer to it for that. So, I'm gonna go to Venus, build a 3 mile tall pillar and fight the sun. Also, some old guy told me my destiny is to "murder the One Protector" and plunge the world into chaos.

Passage 3

Taxi Method

I used my usual taxi method to get to the rocket conveniently launching at this time and hijacked it. Now we wait as we fly to Venus.

Passage 4

Spaceships

I'm on a ship. Nobody knows that I'm on board, and everyone's panicking because it's going the wrong way after I reprogrammed the ship. The old route was going to Mars. I get out of the storage compartment with all the dirty underwear and punch the captain in the face 6000 times. Then, I see 10 astronauts on-board. I kick each one in the nose 30 times each. I find the blueprints for the route and rip it up into 7000 pieces. I look out the window and see a big line of light coming from the Sun. That's gotta be Rah. With my NAB 3000, I- oh crap. It fell out. I lost the most powerful war device. In history. Crap. Well, at least I have a laptop with NukeEm- crap. It fell out too. WHERE IS THIS STUFF GOING?!?

Passage 5

Big Wait

It's going straight to Venus. I'm just waiting.
And waiting.
Waiting..

Are we there yet?

Passage 6

Venus

I'm on Venus. Finally! Now I can build my 3 mile tall tower. Thankfully I brought a pickaxe and chisel, so I can build it. Firstly, I need to mine out half the entire planet for materials. So I- what the hell is that.

Passage 7

Are There Aliens On This Planet? Because That Would Be Pretty Scary, If You Know What I Mean. I Mean ALIENS? Couldn't Be Real! Imagine Aliens Existing!

Sorry for making the title too long. Anyways, I think there's aliens here. There's some big green thing 10 miles away from me. It looks like it's walking closer to me. Eh, couldn't be that important!

Passage 8

Mining

I'm mining out half the planet for my resources. When am I gonna hit some rock? I keep striking gold, which is too soft for something I'm gonna stand on. I DID find a diamond, but it's too shiny to use. If I use something shiny, it'll help the sun get their light everywhere. Ooh! I found a vein of rock!

Passage 9

Building

I'm building the tower now, using my chisel. Currently, I'm at 1 mile. Only 1 third of the way through. I have to manually chisel and place every rock and use my infinite superglue source to stick them together. Thank GOD I have superspeed. So I just went through every rock I got in 5 seconds, turned them into bricks and glued them together into a 2 mile tall cylinder. Then I glued the cylinders together and made a 3 mile tall cylinder. Now I need a ladder. So, I'm gonna steal 6 half-mile tall ladders from the ISS.

Passage 10

Spaceships 2

I'm on the ISS. I just took all their ladders. Now I have 19 ladders making up 2.9 miles. Guess I just have to manually climb the other 0.1.

Passage 11

Aliens (are back)

I'm back on Venus and I just found the alien trashing my cylinder. I sharpen a ladder with my teeth. I stab him with the ladder. I combine all the ladders into one, climb my tower, and wait for the Sun to be just right.

Is it there yet?

Passage 12

The Final Battle

I've done everything correctly up to this point. It's now 5:32 AM on Earth. The Sun is right in front of me. I break off a sharp piece of the ladder.

I charge.

With a bit of determination, and quite a lot of evil, a horrible slash splits the Sun into halves.

A red Sun
and a green Sun.

And I stab the red one

And slash the green,
only with a small amount of pain originated from my spleen.

Then I see two Rahs

Red Rah

and Green Rah

Each display the same hatred, focused like sunlight in a magnifying glass to my eyes.

I'm the only one,
they could possibly despise.

But is it truly worth it?

To murder the one protector?

To plunge the world into chaos?

I feel I've made my choice,
so with my supposedly final seconds of life
I let the sun burn my skin.

Passage 13

The End

And standing still, almost every cell of my body is slowly turned to ash, one by one.

These ashes mark my life.
And the giant 3-mile-tall pillar.

Or will they?

I change my mind,
grab my sharpened copper,
and charge once again.

I slash the Red into twelve pieces,
and slash the Green into fourteen.

With this done, the Suns are destroyed,
and so are the Rahs.

My purpose is fulfilled,
to murder the One Protector.

Goodbye.

AUTHOR'S NOTE

Hi. I wrote this book. My name is Cyrus. I really wanted to continue a series I started in 4th grade. It's been 2 years since I started this book, with a 1 year and 2 month hiatus, and I wanted to finish it off with an epic 6th act. I tried as hard as I could to make it as funny as possible, with a little seriousness in the end. I poured my heart, soul, blood, sweat, determination, and my class time into this book. This book is inspired by the Timmy Failure series and a document my friend made. I hope you enjoyed this book of greatness. Don't ask me why the writing budget went up 10-fold in the last 2 passages.
